

Have a look at some of our recent activities

We used different resources to make printed mother's day cards.

The babies enjoy time in the outdoor area exploring different objects.

Our older children enjoy supporting the younger children with exploring the environment and using different resources to move around.

Children have access to the outdoor provision throughout the day and seem to have lots of fun.

